

Pembroke Herring Fisheries Commission

illustration by Ted Walke

Migration Path of the Herring

The path of the Herring starts in Oldham and Furnace Pond through the Gorham Mill Pond (ladder), along a stream into Glover Mill Pond (ladder), down the stream past the Herring Run Park, into Herring Brook, past Indian Head River into the North River and finally the New Inlet to the sea.

2015

Oldham Pond 232 Acres

Oldham to Furnace Pond

Juvenile Herring following the brook from Oldham to Furnace Pond 2015

Furnace Pond 107 Acres

Gorham Mill Pond

Toward Furnace Pond

Looking down stream

Gorham Mill Pond Fish Ladder

Center St crossing

Mill St crossing

Hobomock St crossing

Glover Mill Pond

Glover Mill Pond Fish Ladder

Mountian Ave crossing

High St crossing

Barker St crossing

Herring Run Park

Thomas Reading Memorial Park

Herring Run Shack

Site of the Old Water Wheel

Site of the Grand Old Fish Fry

Herring Run Park

Cleaning the stream

Cleaning the stream

DMF Workers

Herring Brook

Before

During

Herring Brook

After all the hard work

Indian Head River Reservoir

Indian Head River

North River Pem / Han

Rt 53 Bridge Pem / Han

Washington St Bridge Pem/Han

Rt 3 Bridge Pembroke/Norwell

Locations of Ship Yards

Union St Bridge Marshfield

Rt 3A Bridge Marshfield

Damon's Point

New Inlet / Bartletts Isle Way

